7. MYCAREERMATCH – April News

Careers in the Australian Defence Forces

The Australian Defence Force offers young people a 'lifestyle' career that's quite different to all other civilian type jobs. The training provided is first class and provides personnel with a career path post ADF service. This issue we explore careers in the ADF.

Defence Force Jobs

<http://www.defencejobs.gov.au> is a great site for students to explore.

The ADF provides a huge range of jobs across all sectors such as Business, Administration, Education, Combat, Security, Communications, IT, Intelligence, Engineering, Healthcare, Science, Logistics, Hospitality, Trades, Technicians, Support Services, Management and Officer Training.

A good place to start if students aren't sure which service or job they are best suited to is Job Finder an interactive tool that will match jobs. Some jobs require you to be a certain age, or have certain qualifications. By providing information about yourself, the ADF can show you jobs that are more relevant to you, your interests and your qualifications.

Defence Recruitment Centre

Individual training of Australian servicemen and women is generally provided by the services in their own training institutions. Are students eligible for the ADF, find all the answers here Click view

Download ADF Resources and Information

Here you can download information about career opportunities across the Navy, Army and Air Force, joining instructions and the recruitment process, the forms you'll need, tests and interviews, education and training, fitness and much more. Click to view and download.

Experience 'MyCareerMatch'

MyCareerMatch is the ultimate career assessment for students – helping them connect who they are with what they'll love to do. MyCareerMatch empowers students by delivering positive information about their strengths and qualities. It encourages self-discovery and provides 'must know' information to plan for a successful and happy career.

The starting point of every career plan is self-discovery and personal management...who am I and what am I good at. Key competencies in building and managing a career revolve around the dynamics of self, being aware of behaviours and attitudes, relating to others and exploring opportunities ... all of which feature in the MyCareerMatch report, including the top 5 recommended careers for each student and information on other options including STEM careers.

For students wishing to access this program please book a time with Mr Handreck at Good Shepherd Lutheran College's Career Office.
