MEDIA ALERT – UP-COMING EVENT

ALICE IN WONDERLAND COMES TO LIFE AT GOOD SHEPHERD

Good Shepherd Lutheran College students are madly racing against time as they put the finishing touches on this year's Primary Musical – *Alice in Wonderland Junior*TM – to be held at the College from 19 – 21 July.

Unlike the White Rabbit, Good Shepherd students won't be late for this very important date on the College calendar.

"Many of the students have given up break times, after school and weekends to rehearse their roles and they are getting more and more excited as the show dates draw nearer – but not quite as excited as the Mad Hatter!" says Musical Director, Jim Tomkins.

This year's musical promises to be bigger and better than ever with this fast-paced stage adaptation of Alice in Wonderland featuring updated dialogue and new arrangements of such classic Disney songs as "I'm Late," "The Un-birthday Song" and "Zip-A-Dee-Doo-Dah".

Join Good Shepherd students as Alice's madcap adventures in Wonderland see her chase the White Rabbit, race the Dodo Bird, get tied up with the Tweedles, rap with a bubble-blowing Caterpillar, and beat the Queen of Hearts at her own game!

Students from Years 3 – 7 will have audiences "rolling in the isles" laughing at the antics of the three Cheshire Cats and the dozens of other wonderfully wacky characters.

"We chose Alice in Wonderland as it is a musical which appeals to all ages – young, old and everyone in between," says Mr Dyer, Principal of Good Shepherd Lutheran College, in Noosaville.

"It also gives the students a fantastic opportunity to showcase their singing, dancing and acting talents to their families and the wider community – while learning to work together as a team."

If you are looking for some good, fun, family entertainment you won't be able to go past Alice in Wonderland Junior.

Tickets are on sale now until sold out and are available by calling Good Shepherd Lutheran College Administration on 5455 8600.

Ends.
