YEAR 7 DRAMA WORK PLAN: Semester 2, 2017 – Mrs Evans, Mrs George and Ms Doyle

UNIT	TERM 3 TOPCIS	ASSESSMENT	DUE DATE
Theatre Sport Challenge	THEATRE SPORT CHALLENGE An introduction into the Drama classroom. Students will be given guidelines for the Semester course and establish a Drama contract. Students will begin to learn about Dramatic Play and creating Dramatic Meaning. The first section of the course will focus around learning the principles of Improvisation. This will be achieved through playing a variety of Theatre Sport games. Students will learn about accepting offers, blocking and status within role play. The elements of drama will be taught throughout the semester program. Students will then explore the Process Drama 'Toughen Up' by Maxwell Presents. The Process Drama explores bullying in a micros- community of a High School. It focuses on the issues of social hierarchical structure, peer pressure and the effects on the victim, aggressor and bystander. The Process Drama aims to provide a unique and personal experience that forces an empathetic understanding of the social phenomenon through Dramatic Play and Cinematic Theatre conventions.	1.
